§ - NAIA District 10 Tournament + - overtime # - MIAA Tournament

OPENING TIP

After a bye weekend in conference action, the Gorillas get back to business with two tough games against the league's top teams, Emporia State and Washburn.

Pitt State will face No. 10 Emporia State at John Lance Arena on Wednesday at 5:30 p.m. The Hornets are currently first in the MIAA standings with only two losses in conference play. The game will be Pitt State's Pink Zone game for breast cancer awareness. (For more information on the Pink Zone, see the note below.) Last season in their Pink Zone game, the Gorillas defeated nationally ranked Washburn in triple overtime.

Following the home game versus Emporia State, the Gorillas will travel to Topeka to take on No. 13 Washburn on Saturday. Pitt State won the earlier meeting in Pittsburg in overtime. Saturday's game will be televised live state-wide on Kansas 22 (Cox Cable channel 22).

PINK ZONE

Pittsburg State Women's Basketball team is joining with Mt. Carmel Regional Medical Center and Jock's Nitch Sporting Goods to host a Pink Zone game against Emporia State on Feb. 17. The Pink Zone is an initiative of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association and designed to raise breast cancer awareness on the court, across campuses and in the community. The late Kay Yow, former North Carolina State University head women's basketball coach, served as the catalyst for the initiative after her third recurrence of breast cancer in 2006.

According to the American Cancer Society, breast cancer is the second most common and deadly form of cancer in women. Early detection has played a role in lowering the death rate for breast cancer and increasing the number of survivors in the United States to nearly 2.5 million.

As part of the Pink Zone promotion players will wear special pink jerseys for the game. A silent auction for the jerseys will be held after the game, with the proceeds going to help both the PSU scholarship fund and Mt. Carmel Regional Cancer Center. Fans are encouraged to also wear pink to the game.

The Gorillas also participated in the Pink Zone initiative last season and raised $1,000.

The WBCA began the WBCA Pink Zone™, formerly known as "Think Pink", in 2007 as an initiative to raise breast cancer awareness in women's basketball, on campuses and in communities. In 2007, more than 120 schools unified for this effort and helped make the inaugural year a success. The 2009 campaign raised over $1.3 million, reached more than 912,000 fans, unified more than 1,600 participating teams and organizations, and saw 56+ schools break attendance records at their events. Participating schools are encouraged to donate funds raised to the Kay Yow/WBCA Cancer Fund™ or to local cancer centers and charities.

The NCAA also has joined the WBCA Pink Zone™ initiative by implementing the "Calling for a Cure" campaign where all NCAA women's basketball officials will blow a pink whistle February 12-21, 2009. Additionally, officials are encouraged to make a donation to the Kay Yow/WBCA Cancer Fund™. The NCAA has raised more the $45,000 in the last two years through their "Calling for a Cure" campaign.

SCOUTING EMPORIA STATE

Emporia State is 22-2 on the season overall and 15-2 in MIAA play. The team's only two losses were at Northwest Missouri, 88-76, on Dec. 2 and at Central Missouri, 64-60, on Feb. 3. The team won a streak of 14 games between the two losses.

The Hornets average 80.7 points and 44.2 rebounds per game, while holding opponents to 59.8 point and 34.0 rebounds. The hit .434 from the floor, including .381 from three-point range.

Current MIAA Athlete of the Week Cassondra Boston leads the team with 19.4 points per game. She leads the team in threes made (66), free throw percentage (.862), assists (97) and steals (29). Alli Volkens is the team's second-leading scorer are 10.6 points per game. She is the team's top rebounder with 7.3 rebounds per game. Negesti Taylor grabs 6.5 rebounds per game, while Brittany Miller grabs just under six rebounds (5.9) per game. Miller is also scoring close to double figures with 8.9 points per game.

SCOUTING WASHBURN

The Lady Blues are 20-3 on the season and 14-3 in league play. The team opened the season with 13 straight wins before suffering three consecutive losses at the hands of Missouri Southern (70-65), Pitt State (578-57 OT) and Emporia State (54-47). Since that point Washburn has won seven straight.

Dayna Rodriguez is the only Lady Blue's player averaging double figures with 15.4 points per game. She is the team's second leading rebounder with 7.4 rebounds per game. Hope Gregory leads the team in rebounding with 7.6 rebounds per game. She is the second leading scorer, just under double figures with 9.6 points per game. Amanda Fessenden is the team's top three-point shooter, hitting just over two a game. Rose Hammond leads the team in assists (77) and steals (50).

The Lady Blues average 70.6 points and 41.0 rebounds per game. They allow opponents only 54.9 points and 32.5 rebounds a game. They hit .417 from the field as a team, including .349 from three-point range.

SCOUTING PITT STATE

The Gorillas are 11-12 on the season and 9-7 in MIAA play. They are currently tied for third with Central Missouri in the MIAA race. Eleven of the 12 Pitt State losses have come on the road. The Gorillas did not suffer their first home loss until a 76-57 loss to Southwest Baptist on Feb. 3

Pitt State is shooting .385 from the floor and averaging 68.9 points and 41.5 rebounds per game. The team is hitting only .273 from three-point range and .675 from the charity stripe. One troubling spot for the Gorillas is the assist/turnover ratio. The Gorillas have only one assist for every 1.8 turnovers and average 19.7 turnovers a game.

DePrice Taylor leads the Gorillas with 13.7 points per game and is the third leading rebounder, grabbing 5.4 rebounds per game. She also leads the team in assists and steals. Nicole McCombs averages 13.5 points per game overall. She is the Gorillas' leading rebounder with 6.9 rpg. Bailey Waugh and Drew Roberts battle for Pitt State's three-point shooting lead. Roberts has 34 threes to 30 for Waugh. Waugh shooting a slightly better percentage, .313, from three-point range. Laura Glenn and Maya Onikute each grab over five rebounds a game for the Gorillas, Glenn with 5.2 and Onikute with 5.9.

As a team, the Gorillas give up 70.7 points per game, but out-rebound opponents by just over two rebounds per game.

PSU VS. EMPORIA STATE

The series between Pitt State and Emporia State has been a very lopsided one, with Emporia leading the series 48-18. The Hornets have won nine of the last 10 meetings, including each of the last five. Pitt State has not won back to back games in the series since winning three straight from Feb. 8, 1995 to Jan. 18, 1997.

Emporia also won 13 of the first 14 meetings between the two teams. The longest streak of wins in the series was nine games by ESU from Jan. 5, 1998 to Feb. 21, 2001.

Pitt State's longest streak of wins was five from Jan. 16, 1988 to Jan. 5, 1990.

Scores in the series have also been very lopsided toward ESU. The Hornets have won 17 games by 20 or more points, while Pitt State has only won one game by that margin, a 35-point win in Pittsburg on Jan. 7, 2002. The largest win in the series was an 85-point Emporia win on Dec. 11, 1975.

For more information on the series see the box on page 2.

PSU VS. WASHBURN

Pitt State broke a 16-game losing streak to the Lady Blues with a 94-87 win on Jan. 21, 2009. The Gorillas added another win earlier this season, giving Pitt State wins in two of the last three.

Prior to last season's win Pitt State had not won a game against Washburn since a 69-57 win on Feb. 10, 2001 in Topeka. The two teams met three times last season. The teams split the regular season series, but the Lady Blues got the best of the Gorillas in the MIAA Tournament.

The Gorillas trail The Lady Blues 25-44 in the all-time series. Washburn leads 20-14 in Pittsburg, 22-11 in Topeka and 2-0 at neutral sites.

The longest streak of wins in the series is Washburn's 16-game streak from Feb. 23, 2002 to Jan. 14, 2009. Pitt State longest win streak was eight games from Jan. 8, 1997 to Jan. 15, 2000.

The biggest margin of victory in the series was 65 points in a Washburn 101-36 win in the very first meeting on Jan. 18, 1975. Pitt State's biggest win was 20 points on Jan. 28, 1978 in a 72-52 victory in Topeka.

79-62 win over Pittsburg State University Saturday (Jan. 9) at W.L. White Auditorium.

The Hornets overcame a rugged shooting performance early, outscoring Pitt State 25-4 over the final 7:09 of the first half to secure a 38-30 halftime lead.

The Gorillas (7-7, 5-2 MIAA) jumped out to a 12-3 lead against the Hornets (14-1, 7-1 MIAA), scoring 12 straight points after an early 3-0 deficit. Pitt State expanded its lead to as many as 13 points, at 26-13, on Nicole McCombs' three-point play.

ESU, which missed 12 shots in a row at one point in the first half and started the game 3-for-17 from the floor, chipped its way back into the contest, however. Back-to-back 3-pointers by Cassandra Boston and Sophia Lenard gave the Hornets a 29-28 edge with 2:52 remaining in the half.

Pitt State reclaimed the lead at 30-29 on a pair of free throws by DePrice Taylor 18 seconds later, but ESU closed out the half with a 9-0 run.

Boston scored a game-high 12 points in the half for the Hornets, which shot 37.5 percent from the field (12 of 32). ESU converted nine of its final 15 shots from the floor in the opening period.

ESU continued its torrid pace in the second half, expanding its lead to double figures on Pitt State. The Gorillas, after initially closing to six points on the first possession of the second half, got no closer than eight points of the Hornets in the game's final nine minutes.

Boston finished the game 7-for-15 from the field, adding a game-high eight assists for the Hornets. Lenard chipped in with 12 points for ESU, which finished the game shooting 42.6 percent from the field.

Maya Onikute scored a team-leading 15 points for the Gorillas, while McCombs added 14 points and seven rebounds before fouling out with 7:22 to play in the game. DePrice Taylor also chipped in with 10 points for Pitt State, which shot just 33.3 percent from the field in the game and committed 21 turnovers.

LAST TIME VS. WASHBURN

A three-point shot by Pittsburg State senior Maya Onikute with 14 seconds left in overtime proved to be the game winner as the Pittsburg State women's basketball team (8-7, 6-2 MIAA) earned a 58-57 overtime victory over No. 8 Washburn (13-2, 7-2 MIAA) on Wednesday night at John Lance Arena. The win marks the second year in a row the Gorillas have upset a ranked Washburn team in overtime in Pittsburg.

Though Pitt State led most of the second half, and had as much as a nine-point lead with 5:09 remaining in regulation, Washburn closed the gap fast, narrowing the Pitt State lead to 47-45 with 3:47 to go. The Lady Blues played good defense and held the Gorillas to just two free throws in the last three minutes. Pitt State's last made shot from the floor was a made layup by Nicole McCombs with 3:32 remaining. Washburn hit free throws to chip away at the Gorilla lead before a Brette Ulsaker hit a layup to give her team their first lead of the second half with 1:05 to go. Laura Glenn hit two free throws for the Gorillas to give them the lead again with 29 seconds remaining in regulation. Larissa Richards fouled Washburn's leading scorer, Dayna Rodriguez, as she drove the lane for a layup with 16 second. Rodriguez missed the first of two free throws, but hit the second to tie the game at 51-all. DePrice Taylor tried for a last second shot, but had it blocked by Alyssa Mullen to send the game into overtime.

It looked as if neither team would hit a shot from the floor in the overtime period as Washburn built a four-point lead, point-by-point from the free throw line, as Pitt State forwards Richards and McCombs both fouled out of the game. Finally Laura Glenn drove the lane for a layup with 2:48 to go to cut the Lady Blues' lead to 55-53. Glenn's fifth foul sent Hope Gregory to the line. She nailed both charity shots to put her team up by four once again. The team's traded missed layups before Taylor grabbed a defensive rebound and drove the length of the court for a layup, again cutting Washburn's lead to two with only 1:03 to go. After a timeout and another missed Washburn shot, Taylor pulled down another rebound and attempted to again drive the lane. She wasn't open, but kicked the ball out to Onikute who hit the game winning three.

Taylor led the Gorillas as she recorded a double-double with 15 points and 10 rebounds. She also had four assists and four steals. Laura Glenn also earned a double-double as she led all players on the boards with 14 and added 12 points. Onikute also finished with 12 points, including a 3-for-4 performance from three-point range. Richards blocked four shots for the Gorillas

Rodriguez led all players with 23 points, but she was the only Washburn player to score in double figures on the night. She also pulled down 11 rebounds. Alyssa Mullen also had 11 rebounds for the Lady Blues.

Pitt State shot a slightly better percentage than Washburn hitting 30.8 percent on the night to just 25.4 percent for the Lady Blues. Though Washburn's only points in overtime were from the free throw line, neither team was overly impressive from the charity stripe, as Washburn hit .622 and the Gorillas shot only .440. Washburn also outrebounded Pitt State by four, 55-51.

There were four lead changes and two ties in the first six minutes of the game before Mullen hit a three to give Washburn a lead that they would hold on to for the rest of the half. The Lady Blues built as much as an eightpoint lead, 20-12, with 7:17 to go. Pitt State came within one with just over a minute left, but 5-1 run, capped by a last second three by Stevi Schultz gave Washburn the 30-25 advantage at the half.

Pitt State opened the second half with strong defense, as the Lady Blues hit a scoring slump. Pitt State went on a 12-0 run while Washburn did not score for the first 9:41 of the second half. Pitt State was able to hold on to the lead a little longer until the Washburn comeback began with 4:52 left in regulation.

The win keeps Pitt State undefeated (6-0) at home this season. The loss is the second consecutive for Washburn, who began the season 13-0.

UP NEXT

Pitt State has only two games left after this week, one at home and one on the road. The team first travels west to Hays, Kan. to take on Fort Hays State on Wednesday, Feb. 24 at 5:30 p.m. The team plays its final regular season game and honors its seniors on Saturday, Feb. 27 at 1:30 p.m. against Nebraska-Omaha.

LAST TIME OUT

The Sonic Trophy point for women's basketball has yet to be decided, as a Missouri Southern (13-9, 7-8 MIAA) 72-57 win over the Gorillas (11-12, 9-7 MIAA) on Wednesday night in Joplin, Mo., means the teams split the regular season series. The point will now be decided by which team finishes higher in the final MIAA standings.

Nicole McCombs was the only Pitt State player to score in double figures, as she finished with 16 on the night. Drew Roberts was the second leading scorer with nine. Maya Onikute led the team in rebounding with seven.

Missouri Southern's Jolea Apon led all scorers with 26 points. She hit 8-of-11 shots from deep. Michelle Hedgecock added 18 points and Jasmine Lovejoy scored 13. Lovejoy also led the Lions with seven assists. LaTice Jones led MSSU with nine rebounds.

The first half was a battle. Pitt State was able to end the half in the lead, 31-28, due to a slight rebounding advantage and smart defense. No team led by more than five in the half. Pitt State earned the largest lead of the half on a Courtney Tate layup with 13:15 to go at the end of an 8-0 Gorilla run.

The Lions were able to cut the lead down to two, but Pitt State took the five-point lead back, 20-15, on an Amanda Orloske three. Missouri Southern took the lead, 24-23, with 5:59 to go after a nearly four minute scoring drought by the Gorillas. Pitt State got the lead back on Drew Roberts jumper and was able to keep the lead to the end of the half.

Hedgecock was a thorn in the side for the Gorillas as she scored 15 points in the opening half, including eight points in the first three minutes of the game.

The things that went right for the PSU in the first half, seemed to go wrong in the second. Missouri Southern controlled the boards and didn't seem to miss a shot. Pitt State grabbed just 11 rebounds in the second half, compared to 22 for the Lions. MSSU's Apon, who had been quiet in the first half, drained seven threes in the second, accounting for 21 of her 23 second half points.

Pitt State held onto the lead early in the second half, but the Lions went on a 12-0 run lasting just over three minutes to take the largest lead of the game to that point, 48-41.

Pitt State narrowed the lead as McCombs was fouled twice in 30 seconds and hit all four of her charity shots. The Gorillas still had not made a shot from the floor however, and two Jasmine Lovejoy free throws and an Apon three extended Missouri Southern's lead to eight.

Pitt State would not hit a shot from the floor for nearly seven minutes, allowing Missouri Southern to build a 14-point lead, 59-45. DePrice Taylor helped the Gorilla cause with a layup with 7:52 remaining, in hopes of getting her team back in the game.

The Gorillas continued to fight, but Missouri Southern's 64 percent second-half shooting didn't allow them to close the gap below double digits.

HOME SWEET HOME

Nine of Pitt State's 11 wins have come at home, while all but one of its losses have been on the road. Though good nights at Southwest Baptist and Northwest Missouri, have improved road stats, the confines of John Lance Arena have been a safer place for the Gorillas to play this season. Following is a break down of the Gorillas play at home and on the road this season.

Pitt State has a 298-172 (.634) all-time record in John Lance Arena, including a 109-62 (.637) record since 2000 and a 26-11 (.703) record in three years under Lane Lord.

GORILLAS IN THE MIAA STATS

DePrice Taylor is the league's 10th leading scorer at 13.7 points per game. She is also 14th in rebounds (5.4 rpg) and seventh in steals (1.8 spg). Nicole McCombs is 11th on the scoring list with 13.5 points per game. She also ranks eighth in rebounding (6.9 rpg), second in offensive rebounds (3.5 orpg) and seventh in free throw percentage (.746, 91-for-122). Maya Onikute is 12th in rebounding (5.9 rpg) and 10th in steals (1.6 spg). Larissa Richards is fifth in blocks (1.5 bpg).

SONIC TROPHY SERIES

The Missouri Southern and Pittsburg State Athletics Departments are proud to announce the formation of the Sonic Trophy Series. The Sonic Trophy Series is a cooperative effort between MSSU, PSU and Sonic to reward and honor the athletics department that performs the best throughout the course of the year.

One point will be awarded in each of the thirteen sports in which both departments compete. The school with the most points at the end of the year will be presented the Sonic Trophy Series trophy.

The series is so far tied at 2-2. Pitt State won both the football and volleyball points, while Missouri Southern took both the men's and women's cross country points.

Since both the men's and women's basketball teams split the regular season series, final league standings will determine who wins the basketball points. If the season were to end today, Pitt State would win the women's point and Missouri Southern would win the men's point, resulting in a 3-3 overall tie in the series.

MCCOMBS NAMED MIAA PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Pittsburg State senior forward Nicole McCombs was named the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association Women's Basketball Athlete of the Week on Jan. 4.

McCombs averaged 17.0 points and 6.3 rebounds per game in Pitt State's three post-Christmas games against Central Missouri, Northwest Missouri and Missouri Southern. The senior from Richmond, Va., has been a crucial part of Pitt State's 5-1 conference start.

In only 19 minutes against Central Missouri, McCombs scored 19 points, 11 in the second half and nine in the last 2:33 of the game. Against Northwest, she recorded a double-double with 20 points and 10 rebounds, both season highs. McCombs finished the week with 12 points and four rebounds in the win over Missouri Southern.

For the season, McCombs is Pitt State's second-leading scorer, averaging 12.6 points per game. She is the team's leading rebounder, averaging 6.6 boards per game. McCombs is shooting .603 from the field and .750 from the free throw line.

McCombs is the daughter of Michael and Fronnie McCombs. She is majoring in psychology.

released Tuesday (Oct. 27) at the Downtown Marriott.

The Gorillas received three first-place votes and 86 total points in balloting of the MIAA's 11 coaches. Pitt State earned one first place vote and 236 points in voting among 28 regional media representatives.

Emporia State University earned the preseason No. 1 ranking in both polls, while Washburn University was tabbed second in each poll.

Pitt State posted a breakthrough 20-9 record during the 2008-09 season, advancing to the semifinals of the MIAA Tournament under second-year head coach Lane Lord. The Gorillas notched their first 20-win season in a decade and narrowly missed qualifying for the NCAA-II National Tournament.

"I think expectations are very high in our third year," said Lord. "With the players we have returning, like Nicole McCombs and DePrice Taylor, I think people are recognizing that we have good quality depth. It is flattering to get three first-place votes from the coaches and have our colleagues recognize that we can compete and the top of the league."

McCombs returns for her senior season after earning first-team All-MIAA honors as a junior last year. She averaged a team-leading 15.7 points and 7.2 rebounds per game last season.

"It is nice to see that Pitt State is gaining respect among the coaches and media in the MIAA," McCombs said. "We appreciate the recognition, but hope to exceed expectations."

PSU IN EXHIBITION GAMES

The Gorillas played three exhibition games against teams from the Big 12 Conference. The Gorillas went 0-3 in those games, but got good experience against tough competition.

Pitt State fell to Kansas, 86-56. Nicole McCombs led the Gorillas with 11 points, while Maya Onikute and Larissa Richards shared the rebounding lead with six a piece.

Against Nebraska, the Gorillas lost 68-54, but played much better basketball. PSU trailed the Huskers by only three points with 11 minutes left in the game. Drew Roberts led the team with 17 points, while Laura Glenn led with seven rebounds.

The Gorillas led Kansas State for most of the first half, before poor shooting and turnovers helped them to a 89-61 loss to the Wildcats. McCombs again led the team in scoring, this time with 12 points. Onikute was the leading rebounder with nine.

Over the three exhibition games, Roberts led the team with 12.3 ppg and hit eight threes. while shooting .412 from the floor. McCombs was the only other player averaging double figures with 11.7 ppg. Maya Onikute led the team with 5.7 rpg and 2.7 apg.

GORILLAS SIGN THREE

Pittsburg State University Women's Basketball Coach Lane Lord announced the signing of three student-athletes in the early signing period on Thursday (Nov. 19.). Sara Molz, Katy Cooper and Y'cedria Devers will play for the Gorillas beginning in the 2010-11 season.

Cooper is a 6-2 forward from Stella, Mo. She is a student at East Newton High School. She earned All-Big Eight Conference honors last season as she helped East Newton to a 17-11 record in 2009. Last season she averaged 14 points and 12 rebounds per game. She has been a four-year starter in both basketball and volleyball for the Patriots. Cooper is undecided on a major. She is the daughter of Sara Camerer and Steve Cooper.

"Katy is very athletic," Lord said. "She runs the floor well and blocks shots. She is very good in transition on both offense and defense. She will add a lot of athleticism in the post position."

Y'cedria Devers is a 5-9 guard/forward from Bixby, Oklahoma. She attends Bixby High School. In 2009 she was a Tulsa World honorable mention all-area selection. As a junior she averaged eight points, just over six rebounds and four steals per game. She is the daughter of Y'vette Cornelius and Cedric Devers and plans to major in early childhood education at PSU.

"Y'cedria is a combo guard who likes to get to the basket," Lord said. "She is a tremendous athlete who will work well with our style of play."

Sara Molz is a 5-4 point guard from Kiowa, Kan. She attends South Barber High School. Last season she averaged 13 points, 4.3 rebounds and 5.3 assists for the Cheiftans. She helped her team to a third place finish in the state in 2008 and a sub-state runner-up finish in 2009. She has been named all-state three times. In addition to being a four-year starter in basketball, Molz has also been a four-year starter in volleyball and a two-year letterwinner in track. She is the daughter of Ron and Kristi Molz and plans to major in elementary education at Pittsburg State.

"Sara is also a combo guard who can shoot the three," Lord said. "She is a floor leader and sees the floor very well."

"We fulfilled some needs in this recruiting class," Lord said. "We have signed a guard, forward and center that will replace some of the positions that we will lose after this season. All three are very athletic and talented."
