St. Cloud's Heckendorf, Grand Valley's Marshall, Mackey Headline 2003 Football Gazette Preseason All-America Team

PITTSBURG, Kan. — Quarterback Keith Heckendorf from St. Cloud State University and defensive lineman Keyonta Marshall and defensive back Scott Mackey from defending NCAA Division II National Champion Grand Valley State University headline a talented list of 100 players who have been named 2003 preseason All-Americans by Don Hansen's Football Gazette.

Heckendorf, a senior from Mosinee, Wis., passed for 2,817 yards and 37 touchdowns in leading St. Cloud State to a 9-2 record and runner-up finish in the North Central Conference in 2002. He finished third in the Harlon Hill Trophy balloting. He was a second-team All-America selection by Football Gazette in 2002, finishing behind Harlon Hill Award winner Curt Anes of Grand Valley State.

Marshall and Mackey both were first-team Football Gazette All-America selections in 2002, helping the Lakers to an unblemished 14-0 season. Marshall, a junior from Saginaw, Mich., recorded 79 tackles (53 solo) with 12 quarterback sacks and 23 tackles-for-loss last year. Mackey, a senior from Bay City, Mich., recorded 87 tackles (71 solo) with two quarterback sacks, three interceptions and three pass breakups in 2002.

A total of 100 players — 50 offense, 50 defense — representing all four geographic regions of NCAA Division II were named to the 2003 Football Gazette Preseason All-America team. Seven schools have three selections on the preseason All-America team, including Division II runner-up Valdosta State. A total of 66 schools have representation on the squad.

This marks the 16th year Don Hansen's Football Gazette, a recognized authority on small college football, has selected NCAA Division II All-America and preseason All-America teams.
