Grand Valley's Tennessee, North Dakota's Anderson Headline 2004 Football Gazette Preseason All-America Team

PITTSBURG, Kan. — Running back Michael Tennessee from defending NCAA Division II National Champion Grand Valley State University and linebacker Digger Anderson from national runner-up University of North Dakota headline a talented list of 130 players who have been named 2004 preseason All-Americans by Don Hansen's Football Gazette.

Tennessee, a senior from Sterling Heights, Mich., rushed the ball 342 times for 1,633 yards (4.8 ypc) and 16 touchdowns in helping the Lakers to their second straight NCAA-II national title during a 14-1 campaign. He was a third-team All-America selection by Football Gazette in 2003.

Anderson, a junior from Coon Rapids, Minn., recorded 124 tackles (95 solo) with 11 tackles-for-loss and 2.0 quarterback sacks. He also had two interceptions, forced two fumbles and recovered three others. Anderson was a second-team Football Gazette All-America selection in 2003, helping the Fighting Sioux to a 12-2 record and the national runner-up finish.

Tennessee leads a senior-dominated cast on the 2004 preseason All-America list, with 88 seniors, 34 juniors and eight sophomores making up the elite group. A total of 130 players — 63 offense, 51 defense, 16 special teams — representing all four geographic regions of NCAA Division II were named to the 2004 Football Gazette Preseason All-America team. Fifty-three players on the 2004 preseason list earned All-America honors from Football Gazette in 2003.

GVSU led the way with four selections on the preseason All-America team, while 12 schools (Carson-Newman, Concordia-St. Paul, Mansfield, Minnesota Duluth, Nebraska-Kearney, North Alabama, North Dakota, Pittsburg State, Saginaw Valley State, Southeastern Oklahoma State, Texas A&M-Kingsville, Valdosta State) have three selections apiece. A total of 85 schools have representation on the squad.

This marks the 17th year Don Hansen's Football Gazette, a recognized authority on small college football, has selected NCAA Division II All-America and preseason All-America teams.
