Harlon Hill Winner Friehauf, Rushing Leader Woodhead Headline 2004 Football Gazette All-Southwest Region Team

PITTSBURG, Kan. — Harlon Hill Trophy winner Chad Friehauf from Colorado School of Mines and national rushing leader Danny Woodhead from Chadron State College highlight a talented 2004 All-Southwest Region Team selected by Don Hansen's Football Gazette.

This marks the third year Football Gazette has selected NCAA Division II All-Region teams. The national publication has selected NCAA Division II All-America teams since 1988.

The first-team and second-team All-Region selections advance to a national ballot from which the 2004 NCAA Division II Football Gazette All-America team will be selected in early January.

Friehauf, a senior quarterback from Brush, Colo., passed for 4,646 yards and 39 touchdowns in leading the Orediggers to a 12-1 overall record and an NCAA-II playoff berth. Friehauf, a runaway winner of the Hill Trophy as the National Player of the Year, set Division II records for total offense (5,363 yards) and passing yards (4,646) during the 2004 season.

Woodhead, a freshman running back from North Platte, Neb., rushed the ball 284 times for 1,840 yards and 25 touchdowns. He led Division II in rushing (184.0 ypg), scoring (16.2 ppg) and all-purpose yards (208.7 ypg) in leading the Eagles to a 7-3 season.

National runner-up Pittsburg State University had six players earn first-team All-Southwest Region recognition, while Colorado Mines had five first-team honorees. Adams State College and Northwest Missouri State University each had four first-team selections.

A total of 82 players earned some form of Football Gazette All-Southwest Region honors. Players from 25 of the 36 football-playing schools in the Southwest Region earned All-Southwest Region accolades.
